- (d) An application for membership may be made in writing, signed by the applicant or may be in such electronic format as the Management Committee may from time to time determine.
- (e) The Management Committee shall, in its absolute discretion and subject to these Rules, accept or reject an application for membership.
- (f) At the time of application for membership, an applicant must declare to the Management Committee any reason that may cause the Executive to consider not accepting the application for membership such as, but not be limited to being convicted of an indictable offence.
- (g) Upon application for membership being accepted, and payment of the prescribed fee (if any), the member shall be entitled to all the rights of membership of the class to which the member has been admitted and shall be liable to pay all contributions, and meet all obligations, required of the class to which the member has been appointed.
- (h) The different classes of membership may, in accordance with these Rules, have different rights as members.

6. FEES

- (a) The annual subscription fees shall be the fee paid for membership of the Association for the period of the financial year.
- (b) The fees for each financial year will be determined by the Management Committee at least 90 days before the end of the current financial year.
- (c) The date for payment of the annual subscription fees shall be at such time as the Management Committee may determine from time to time and failing any such determination shall fall due for payment at the commencement of the financial year.
- (d) The amount of annual subscription fees may vary as between classes of membership, provided that Life Members, Veteran Members and Honorary Members shall not be required to pay an annual subscription fee.

- (e) The subscription fee payable to join the Association at any time after six (6) months of the financial year has expired shall only be ½ of the annual subscription fee for which the member would otherwise be liable to pay in the respective financial year, and upon payment such member shall be accorded all the rights and shall have all the liabilities of membership.
- (f) The Management Committee may exercise its discretion, upon receipt and consideration of an application by a person, where it considers it desirable that the person should be admitted to membership of the Association and where there exists any of the following:
 - (i) the person is suffering from financial hardship; or
 - (ii) other extenuating circumstances exist in relation to the person, to waive the payment of the annual subscription fee or reduce the amount of the annual subscription fee to be paid by the person.
- (g) Despite the provisions of Sub-Rules (a) to (f) the Management Committee may determine a Lifetime Subscription Fee, which an ordinary or associate member may elect to pay and where so electing the member concerned shall:
 - (i) be a financial ordinary or associate, as the case may be, member of the Association from that time;
 - (ii) shall be entitled to all the benefits of a financial member;
 - (iii) shall not be liable for the payment of any annual subscription fee, provided that the Management Committee may set the Lifetime Subscription Fee and set a different fee for ordinary and associate members.”
- (h) All membership fees shall be payable to the Treasurer.

7. RIGHTS OF MEMBERS

- (a) Only financial ordinary members shall be entitled, subject to these Rules, to:
 - (i) propose or second a motion;
 - (ii) attend any general meeting of the Association;
 - (iii) speak to, or vote upon, any motion at any general meeting of the Association;
 - (iv) nominate for, or stand for, any office in the Association;
 - (v) nominate or second a nomination; and
 - (vi) vote in any ballot for elections for any office in the Association held pursuant to these Rules.
- (b) Associate members shall be entitled, subject to these Rules, to:
 - (i) attend any general meeting of the Association;

- (ii) speak to any motion at any general meeting of the Association; and
 - (iii) be nominated for a position on the Management Committee, other than to an Executive office of the Association.
- (c) Honorary members shall be entitled, subject to these Rules, to:
- (i) Attend any general meeting of the Association; and
 - (ii) speak, if invited by the Chairperson, to any motion at any general meeting of the Association.

8. ADMISSION AND REJECTION OF MEMBERS

- (a) At the meeting of the Management Committee next following the receipt of any application and the fee applicable for any class of membership, such application shall be considered by the Management Committee, which shall thereupon determine upon the admission or rejection of the applicant, provided that the Management Committee can, should it consider appropriate to do so, call upon any applicant for membership to provide evidence of their eligibility.
- (b) Where an application is considered pursuant to Sub-rule (a) and the applicant receives a majority of the votes of the members of the Management Committee present at the meeting at which such application is considered, then such applicant shall be accepted as a member to the class of membership applied for.
- (c) Upon the acceptance or rejection of an application for any class of membership the Secretary shall forthwith give the applicant notice in writing of such acceptance or rejection.

9. TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- (a) A member may resign from the Association at any time by giving notice in writing to the Secretary.
- (b) Such resignation shall take effect at the time such notice is received by the Secretary, unless a later date is specified in the notice when it shall take effect on that later date.
- (c) A member must disclose to the Executive any reason that has arisen during their membership, that may preclude them from retaining membership, such as but not limited to being found guilty of an indictable offence. Such declaration should be made in writing within seven (7) days after the reason has arisen;
- (d) If a member -
 - (i) is convicted of any indictable offence;
 - (ii) fails to comply with any of the provisions of these Rules;
 - (iii) has membership fees in arrears for period of four (4) months or more;
 - (iv) conducts himself in a manner considered to be injurious or prejudicial to the objectives or interests of the Association, the Management Committee shall consider whether the member's membership may be terminated.

- (e) The member concerned shall be given a full and fair opportunity of presenting the member's case, and if the Management Committee resolves to terminate their membership it shall instruct the Secretary to forthwith advise the member in writing accordingly.
- (f) Any member who is in arrears of the annual subscription fee for a period of more than 12 calendar months may have their membership terminated without right of appeal pursuant to the provisions of this Rule.

10. APPEAL AGAINST REJECTION OR TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- (a) A person whose application for membership has been rejected or whose membership has been terminated may, subject to these Rules within one (1) month of receiving written notification thereof, lodge with the Secretary written notice of the members intention to appeal against the decision of the Management Committee.
- (b) Upon receipt of a notification of intention to appeal against rejection or termination of membership the Secretary shall convene, within two (2) months of the date of receipt of such notice, a Management Committee meeting to determine the appeal.
- (c) At any such meeting the applicant shall be given the opportunity to fully present their case.
- (d) The applicant shall be entitled to make written submissions, appear in person or to be represented by a financial member but shall not otherwise have a right of appearance or representation.
- (e) The appeal shall be determined by the vote of the Management Committee members present at the Management Committee meeting.
- (f) Where a person whose application is rejected, does not appeal against the decision of the Management Committee within the time prescribed by these Rules or so appeals but the appeal is unsuccessful, the Secretary shall in the case of applicants for membership forthwith refund the amount of any fee paid and in the case of members whose membership is being terminated forthwith refund to the member an amount being the sum that bears the same proportion to the full membership fee as the period of the membership year that has not elapsed bears to 12 months.

11. REGISTER OF MEMBERS

- (a) The Secretary shall cause a Register to be kept in which shall be entered the names and residential addresses of all persons admitted to membership of the Association, the dates of their admission and the class to which they are being admitted.
- (b) Particulars shall also be entered into the Register of deaths, resignations, terminations and reinstatements of membership and any further particulars as the Management Committee or the members at any general meeting may require from time to time.

- (c) The Register shall be made available during usual business hours by the Secretary for inspection by a financial member, who on reasonable notice, applies to the Secretary for such inspection.
- (d) In order to maintain the privacy of members, any inspection of the Register of members as prescribed in Sub-rule (c) shall be limited to the entries pertaining to the member requesting the inspection
- (e) The Register as maintained pursuant to Sub-rule (a) shall be determinative of financial membership.
- (f) The confidentiality of any information used or assembled for the objectives of the Association shall be maintained by any member who has access to this information, during their membership, or after their membership ceases.
- (g) Any information gained from the Register of members of the Association shall not be used for any other purpose than for the operation of the Association.

12. MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- (a) The affairs of the Association shall be administered, between general meetings of the Association, by the Management Committee.
- (b) The Management Committee shall comprise of the Executive pursuant to Sub-rule 14(b) and maximum of four (4) Ordinary Members.
- (c) A retiring President, who does not stand for election for any other office on the Management Committee, shall be entitled to attend, as an ex officio officer of the Management Committee, all Management Committee meetings held during the next succeeding term of office immediately following their retirement and shall be entitled at Management Committee meetings to speak to any motion, but shall not be entitled to propose or second any motion or to vote on any motion.
- (d) Any member of the Management Committee may:
 - (i) resign from membership of the Management Committee at any time by giving notice in writing to the Secretary; or
 - (ii) be removed from office at a Management Committee meeting of the Association where the majority of the Management Committee considers that the member of the Management Committee:
 - A. is not substantially fulfilling the objectives of the Association and/or;
 - B. is guilty of conduct detrimental to the interests of the members of the Association and/or;
 - C. has ceased to function in their office as a member of the Management Committee as provided for by these Rules, provided that such member of the Management Committee shall be given the opportunity to fully present their case and that the question of removal shall be determined by the vote of the members of the Management Committee present in person at such Management Committee meeting.

- (e) A resignation under Sub-rule (d)(i) shall take effect at the time such written notice is received by the Secretary unless a later date is specified in the notice when it shall take effect on that later date.
- (f) Any member of the Management Committee who, without reasonable excuse or who has not been granted a leave of absence pursuant to this Rule, fails to attend three (3) consecutive meetings may be removed from the Management Committee by a majority of two-thirds of the members present at a Management Committee meeting, provided that a Management Committee member so removed shall be informed in writing forthwith and may appeal in the manner specified by Rule 9 of these Rules.
- (g) The Management Committee may co-opt persons, whether financial members or not, onto the Management Committee for such purposes and for such period of time as the Management Committee may in its absolute discretion determine, provided that any persons so co-opted shall have a right to speak but not to propose, second or vote on motions before the Management Committee.
- (h) The Management Committee may give leave of absence to any of the members of the Management Committee for periods of up to three (3) months, during which time the Management Committee may, if the circumstances require, appoint one (1) of its number or other financial member of the Association to act in the place of the Management Committee member who has been given the leave of absence.
- (i) Any member of the Management Committee who ceases to be a financial member of the Association shall cease to be a member of the Management Committee.

13. MEETINGS OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- a) Subject to these Rules, the Management Committee may meet together and regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit.
- b) The Management Committee shall meet at least once every second calendar month, on such dates and times and at such places as the Management Committee determines, to exercise its functions.
- c) The Management Committee may, in relation to the meetings referred to in Sub-rule (a), conduct such meeting by telephone, radio, video-conferencing or any other method by which members of the Management Committee are able to communicate with each other without being physically present.
- d) The President shall preside as chairperson at every meeting of the Management Committee.
- e) At every meeting of the Management Committee a quorum shall be constituted by the attendance in person, or as this Rule may otherwise provide, of the number of members of the Management Committee equal to half the number of members presently elected or appointed to the Management Committee plus one.
- f) If within 15 minutes from the time appointed for the commencement of a Management Committee meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members of the Management Committee, shall lapse, in any other case the meeting of the Management Committee shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Management Committee may determine, and as shall then be advised by the Secretary to the members of the Management Committee and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall proceed and shall be deemed quorate.

- g) A special meeting of the Management Committee shall be convened by the Secretary on the requisition in writing signed by not less than one-third of the members of the Management Committee, which requisition shall clearly state the reasons why such special meeting is being convened and the nature of the business to be transacted thereat.
- h) Not less than seven (7) days' notice shall be given by the Secretary to members of the Management Committee of any special meeting of the Management Committee convened on the requisition of members of the Management Committee.
- i) A notice of a special meeting shall clearly state the nature of the business to be conducted at the meeting, and no other business may be dealt with at the special meeting.
- j) In the event of a special meeting being adjourned the only business that may be dealt with at the adjourned meeting shall be the business that remains unfinished from the business specified in the original notice of the special meeting.
- k) If the President is not present at a meeting of the Management Committee within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or if present is not willing to act, the Vice-President shall be Chairperson or if the Vice-President is not present at the meeting, or if present is not willing to act, then the members of the Management Committee may choose one (1) of their number to be Chairperson of the meeting.
- l) A special meeting of the Management Committee may:
 - (i) be called by the President or the Secretary who shall give such notice of the meeting as is practicable in the circumstances and such special meeting may be conducted by telephone, radio, video-conferencing or any other method by which members of the Management Committee are able to communicate with each other without being physically present; or
 - (ii) be conducted by a ballot of the members of the Management Committee on the subject matter of the special meeting by means of registered post, facsimile transfer, E-mail or by such other electronic or telegraphic means as may be available, provided that:
 - A. in any such ballot of the Management Committee, a majority of the members of the Management Committee entitled to vote and so voting, shall constitute a quorum; and
 - B. in any such ballot of the Management Committee, decisions shall be by simple majority of the votes cast;
 - C. in any such ballot no votes shall be cast by proxy; and
 - D. in any such ballot the means exists by which the Secretary can confirm the identity of the person voting.

- m) A member of the Management Committee not present at a meeting or part thereof may, subject to these Rules, appoint in writing a member of the Management Committee as proxy to exercise such vote. Provided that no member shall hold more than one (1) proxy at any meeting of the Management Committee.

14. EXECUTIVE

- (a) The affairs of the Association shall be administered, between meetings of the Management Committee, by the Executive.
- (b) The Executive shall comprise of the President, the Vice-President, the Treasurer and the Secretary.
- (c) All members of the Executive shall have voting rights and the President shall also have a casting vote.
- (d) Any member of the Executive may be removed from office at a Management Committee meeting of the Association where the majority of the Management Committee considers that the member of the Executive:
 - (i) is not substantially fulfilling the objectives of the Association;
 - (ii) is guilty of conduct detrimental to the interests of the members of the Association; and/or
 - (iii) has ceased to function in their office as a member of the Executive as provided for by these Rules, provided that such member of the Executive shall be given the opportunity to fully present their case and that the question of removal shall be determined by the vote of the members present in person at such Management Committee meeting.

The process for the removal of a member of the Executive Committee must be following a motion of “no confidence” that is moved, seconded, and passed in accordance with the Association rules of meeting procedure at a meeting of the Management Committee.

- (e) Any member of the Executive who ceases to be a financial member of the Association shall cease to be a member of the Executive.

15. MEETINGS OF THE EXECUTIVE

- (a) Subject to these Rules, the Executive may meet together and regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit.
- (b) The Executive shall meet on such dates and times and at such places as the Executive determines, to exercise its functions.
- (c) The Executive may, in relation to the meetings referred to in Sub-rule (a) and (g) conduct such meeting by telephone, radio, video-conferencing or any other method by which members of the Executive are able to communicate with each other without being physically present.
- (d) The President shall preside as Chairperson at every meeting of the Executive.

- (e) At every meeting of the Executive a quorum shall be constituted by attendance in person of two (2) members of the Executive.
- (f) If within 15 minutes from the time appointed for the commencement of an Executive meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members of the Executive, shall lapse, in any other case the meeting of the Executive shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall lapse.
- (g) A special meeting of the Executive shall be convened by the Secretary on the requisition in writing signed by not less than two (2) members of the Executive, which requisition shall clearly state the reasons why such special meeting is being convened and the nature of the business to be transacted thereat.
- (h) Not less than three (3) days' notice shall be given by the Secretary to members of the Executive of any special meeting of the Executive convened on the requisition of members of the Executive.
- (i) A notice of a special meeting shall clearly state the nature of the business to be conducted at the meeting and no other business may be dealt with at the special meeting.
- (j) In the event of a special meeting being adjourned the only business that may be dealt with at the adjourned meeting shall be the business that remains unfinished from the business specified on the original notice of the special meeting.
- (k) If the President is not present at a meeting of the Executive within 10 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or if present is not willing to act, the Vice-President shall be Chairperson or if the Vice-President is not present at the meeting, or if present is not willing to act, then the members of the Executive may choose one (1) of their number to be Chairperson of the meeting.
- (l) If all the members entitled to attend a special meeting of the Executive have signed a document containing a statement that they are in favour of a resolution of the Executive in terms set out in the document, a resolution in those terms shall be deemed to have been passed at a special meeting of the Executive held on the day on which the document was signed and at the time at which the document was last signed by a member of the Executive or, if the members of the Executive signed the document on different days, on the day on which, and at the time at which, the document was last signed by a member of the Executive.
- (m) For the purposes of Sub-rule (1), two (2) or more separate documents containing statements in identical terms each of which is signed by one (1) or more members of the Executive shall together be deemed to constitute one (1) document containing a statement in those terms signed by those members of the Executive on the respective days on which they signed the separate documents.
- (n) A special meeting of the Executive may:

Where it furthers the objectives of the organisation to amalgamate with any one (1) or more other organisations having similar objectives, the other organisation(s) must have Rules prohibiting the distribution of its (their) assets and income to members and must be charitable at law and must not be carried on for the profit or gain of its individual members.

45. STANDING ORDERS

- (a) The order of procedure provided for by this Rule shall be adhered to as far as practicable at all meetings of the Association.

- (b) The Chairperson shall take the chair for the meeting and upon ascertaining that a quorum is present shall then declare the meeting open for the transaction of business and in the event of no quorum being present within the time prescribed, the Chairperson shall proceed in accordance with the appropriate Rule.
- (c) The order of procedure shall be as follows:
 - (i) attendance and apologies;
 - (ii) minutes shall be presented for confirmation, but no discussion shall be allowed except as to their accuracy as a record of the proceedings;
 - (iii) business arising out of minutes;
 - (iv) correspondence;
 - (v) financial statements and accounts;
 - (vi) reports;
 - (vii) general business.
- (d) Notices of motion shall be required for rescission or alteration of standing orders, Rules of debate, or some previous resolution.
- (e) A member on giving a notice of motion shall provide the Secretary with a copy of such notice.
- (f) No notice entered on the notice paper shall be proceeded with unless the member who has given such notice or some person authorised by the member in writing to move the motion be present when the business is called to its order.
- (g) Notices not proceeded with shall be struck out.
- (h) No new business shall be taken later than 10 p.m. unless an extension of time be granted by the meeting prior to that hour.
- (i) Any member engaging in misconduct during a meeting or in any way making an annoyance to or obstructing the business of the meeting shall be called to order by the Chairperson and, if after being so called to order, the member refuses or fails to obey the Chairperson, that member shall be excluded from taking any further part in the business of the meeting if, upon taking a vote forthwith for that purpose, a majority of the members present at such meeting so decide.

46. RULES OF DEBATE

- (a) No discussion shall be allowed except on motion or amendment duly proposed and seconded.
- (b) Any member desiring to propose a motion or amendment or to discuss any matter under consideration must address the Chairperson and no member shall address the meeting unless called by the Chairperson.

- (c) When the Chairperson speaks during a debate, the member then speaking or offering to speak shall cease so that the Chairperson may be heard without interruption.
- (d) The Chairperson shall call to order any speaker who departs from the question or who violates the courtesies or rules of debate.
- (e) Should the Chairperson desire to take part in a debate at any meeting then the Chairperson shall vacate the chair for the time being and another Chairperson shall be appointed in accordance with these Rules.
- (f) All questions shall be determined in the following manner:
 - (i) the mover of the motion shall have five (5) minutes at the time of moving the motion to present argument in support of the motion and five (5) minutes to reply, which must be limited to the answering of arguments advanced against the motion;
 - (ii) the seconder of such motion and all other speakers shall be limited to five (5) minutes;
 - (iii) the meeting, on motion without debate, may extend the time of any speaker but such extension of time shall not exceed five (5) minutes – the meeting may agree to further extensions on the same basis;
 - (iv) the Chairperson shall call attention to the time of all speakers one (1) minute before such time expires and motions for extensions may be made when the Chairperson so calls, but not later;
 - (v) after the motion has been moved and seconded, no more than two (2) members shall speak in succession on one side, either for or against any question before the meeting and if at the conclusion of the second speaker’s remarks no member rises to speak on the other side, the motion or amendment shall at once be put to the meeting, subject to part (i);
 - (vi) all votes at meetings shall be subject to the following:
 - (A) the Chairperson shall read the motion and determine the question on the voices, provided that the Chairperson may call for a show of hands; and
 - (B) the Chairperson shall then declare the question carried or lost;
 - (vii) in the event of a motion being carried or lost by a narrow majority, any three (3) members may demand a division and on a division being called for, those in favour shall go to the side of the room on the Chairperson’s right and those against to the Chairperson’s left and the number on each side shall be counted and the number of voters each – for and against – shall be recorded in the minutes;
 - (viii) provided always that any three (3) members may call for a poll to be conducted in relation to any motion if the request for the poll is made prior to motion being voted upon and the request for the poll is carried by the meeting.
- (g) At any time during debate on any motion it shall be competent for any member who has not spoken to the motion to move an amendment, which shall be subject to the following:

- (i) all amendments must be seconded;
 - (ii) motions may be amended by adding words, by deleting words, or by deleting words and inserting others in their place;
 - (iii) the effect of any proposed amendment shall not be such as to establish a direct negative to the question contained in the motion;
 - (iv) only one (1) amendment shall be received at a time and such amendment must be disposed of before any further amendment is moved and all amendments shall be put before the original motion;
 - (v) the mover of an amendment shall not have the right of reply; and
 - (vi) should an amendment be carried it becomes the substantive motion and thereon an amendment may be proposed, if however, no further amendment be proposed the amendment which has become the substantive motion shall be put without further debate subject to the mover of the original question having the right of reply.
- (h) Where a motion is considered by a meeting without any amendments being proposed no member except for the mover of the motion shall speak more than once on the motion unless by way of personal explanation or with the consent of the meeting except where an amendment or amendments are proposed then a member may speak for or against the motion and for or against any amendment which is proposed.
- (i) Any member who thinks they have been misrepresented by a speaker may, with the indulgence of the meeting, interrupt the speaker to correct the misstatement, but the member must not enter into argument.
- (j) It shall be competent at any time during a debate for a member who has not spoken to the motion to rise and move “that the question be now put” but no discussion shall be allowed thereon and if this motion be duly seconded and carried, the Chairperson shall forthwith call upon the member (if any) who may have the right of reply, and immediately following such reply the Chairperson shall put the motion, which shall include the amendments (if any) which have been moved, or of which notice has been given.
- (k) No motion upon any other subject shall be submitted until the one before the chair is disposed of as prescribed in Sub-rule (m).
- (l) Should any question have occupied the attention of the meeting for twenty (20) minutes, the discussion on such question shall be deemed to have closed and the Chairperson shall forthwith call on the mover to reply, unless the meeting decides by resolution to continue the discussion of the matter in question.
- (m) A motion may be dealt with by:
- (i) adoption as moved;
 - (ii) rejection as moved;
 - (iii) adoption after amendment of the subject matter;

- (iv) any of the following motions which will be in order whether a motion or motion with amendments, shall be before the meeting:
 - (A) “the order of the day”, i.e., that the next business in order be now taken;
 - (B) postponement of the question, either to a definite time or a time to be fixed;
 - (C) reference to a committee; or
- (v) Adjournment:
 - (A) of the debate; or
 - (B) of the meeting.
- (n) A motion for adjournment may be moved and seconded at any time during the meeting and the motion may be debated provided that not more than two (2) speakers be allowed both for and against the motion (including the mover and seconder).
- (o) There shall be no right of reply for the mover of the motion for adjournment and such adjournment shall occur if carried by a majority of members present.
- (p) A second motion for adjournment shall not be moved until the subject under discussion at the time of the first motion for adjournment has been disposed of.
- (q) A member may at a meeting give a notice of motion to be moved at a future meeting by handing a copy thereof to the Chairperson and such notice of motion shall take precedence in the order in which it stands in the minute book, in relation to other similar notices, and it shall lapse if the member or some other member authorised in writing to move the motion on the member’s behalf be not present when the order of the day for such notice is read.
- (r) Questions of order shall be decided by the Chairperson, whose ruling shall be final unless challenged by a formal motion submitted to the meeting.
- (s) Any member may rise to a point of order when the member considers the rules of debate to have been violated and the member must submit the “point of order” to the Chairperson, who shall decide the question as prescribed in Sub-rule (t).
- (t) Upon the question of the order being raised, the member addressing the meeting at the time shall take their seat and shall remain seated until the “point of order” has been decided.
- (u) A report of a committee officially presented shall be received without motion, but the adoption of such report either absolutely or by clauses shall be moved and seconded.
- (v) It shall be competent for any member to move the reconsideration of a resolution that has been passed by a meeting, provided that the member shall have given notice at a previous meeting.

- (w) It shall be competent for any member to propose that any subject shall be considered in a committee of the whole meeting and the vote on such proposition when seconded shall then be taken without discussion.
- (x) Any standing orders or rule of debate contained in this Rule may be suspended by the vote of the majority of the members present at the meeting.
- (y) Rulings given by the Chairperson on any question may be subject to a motion calling to disagree with any ruling. On the motion becoming seconded, the Chairperson shall vacate the chair which shall be taken by the Vice-President or otherwise in accordance with these Rules.
- (z) No motion to dissent from the Chairperson's ruling shall be permitted unless it be made before any other business or speech has intervened.
- (aa) The procedure to determine the motion shall be as follows:
 - (i) the member moving the motion shall be given five (5) minutes to support the motion;
 - (ii) the Chairperson shall be given five (5) minutes to defend their ruling; and
 - (iii) the acting Chairperson shall then put the question and on the question being determined the Chairperson shall resume the chair.

47. BY-LAWS

- (a) The Management Committee may make By-Laws not inconsistent with the Act or these Rules, for the carrying into effect of any or all of the provisions and objectives of these Rules.
- (b) The Management Committee may rescind in full or in part or amend any By-Law or part of a By-Law.
- (c) Members of the Management Committee shall be given not less than seven (7) days notice of motion before any By-Law for adoption or amendment may be considered by a meeting of the Management Committee.
- (d) The Secretary shall cause to be kept an up to date copy of all By-Laws adopted pursuant to this Rule, which shall be available for perusal by members on request to the Secretary.
- (e) Any By-Law which is inconsistent with the provisions of the Act and these Rules shall be void to the extent of such inconsistency, but so far as it is possible the By-Law shall be given meaning, and so far as it is possible effect shall be given to such parts of a By-Law which are not void.
